SINGLE PARENT'S PLEDGE

As a Single Parent I Will...

1. I will from this day forward let go of the past and live for the future.
2. I will strive to better my knowledge of parenting and taking care of myself by reading, studying and seeking guidance from those I trust.
3. I will make wise decisions now to protect myself and my children.
4. I will take care of myself physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually.
5. I will be a strong role model for my children.
6. I will love my children no matter what happens.
7. I will encourage, praise, respect, be truthful to, apologize to when I'm wrong and answer questions in all matters with my children.
8. I will think "long term" in my decision making in matters that affect myself and my children.
9. I will make a plan for my future with specific goals, write them down and remain committed to implementing them.
10. I will put my trust in God Almighty to lead, direct and care for me and my family.
